

ACCOMMODATION AT GENERAL SYNOD 2010

Dioceses are responsible for the cost of accommodation and meals for their delegates.

SAINT MARY'S UNIVERSITY RESIDENCES

Saint Mary's University in Halifax, site of General Synod 2010, offers convenient, affordable accommodation in its Loyola, Rice and Vanier residences, close to all General Synod activities.

Accommodation at Saint Mary's will be booked with registration, unless otherwise indicated. The cost of delegates' meals and accommodation will be billed to their diocese by General Synod.

A mixture of single, twin and apartment style rooms has been blocked for General Synod. Bedrooms are furnished as study rooms with a captain's-style single bed, desk with hutch, lamp, chair, closet space and telephone (free local calls). Linen is provided. Washrooms are shared. Internet connection is available in your room, but you will need to bring your own internet cable. Rooms will be assigned by General Synod. Those staying on campus will receive a Tower Fitness and Recreation Centre pass for the duration of their stay.

ALTERNATIVE ACCOMMODATION OFF CAMPUS

Note: Alternative accommodation may have cost implications for delegates and/or their dioceses. Be sure to check with your diocese before making alternative arrangements for accommodation.

THE ATLANTICA HOTEL HALIFAX

1980 Robie Street, Halifax, NS B3H 3G5

Reservations may be made via telephone (902) 423-1161 or toll free at 1-888-810-7288, Fax (902) 423-9069 or email at reservations@atlanticalhalifax.com.

Rooms are blocked for "2010 General Synod."

The Atlantica Hotel Halifax is located 2km. from Saint Mary's University. A special rate of $125.00 plus taxes (HST and HMLevy) per night (single, double or quad occupancy) has been negotiated for General Synod.

Note: The price difference between the Atlantica Hotel Halifax and the residences at Saint Mary's University is approximately $88.00 per day.

Delegates choosing to stay off-site are responsible for booking their own alternative accommodation and for ensuring that financial arrangements are in place. They are also responsible for their own transportation to and from Saint Mary's University throughout Synod.

All travel to General Synod off-site events will depart from and return to the university.
