VISION 2019 is a church-wide exercise for Canadian Anglicans to discern, dream, and decide where they think God wants the church to be in 2019. The results will be shared at the next gathering of General Synod in June 2010.

Here are some ideas to inspire you as you respond to the two-part Vision 2019 question:

▶ “Where is your church now and where do you want the Anglican Church of Canada to be by 2019?”

- Get a group of Sunday school kids together, then write or film their dreams.
- Pray about your own individual answer, then call and leave a message.
- At your next parish potluck, walk around with a video camera and interview three or four people about the question.
- Write your answer in the form of a prayer, then email it in.
- Set up a storytelling corner after a church service, with stations where people can drop off written letters or tape their stories at a video camera.
- Provide letter-writing supplies for your next Bible study or prayer breakfast. Pray together about the question, then devote half an hour for everyone to write down their thoughts.
- Reach out to Anglicans who are housebound, elderly, or sick, or others who might not be able to tell their stories without your help. Take the time to transcribe their thoughts, or film them.
